Foreword

We, the Senior Class of Bethel High School presents with great pride, our yearbook the INDIAN. We hope that it will serve as a remembrance of past experiences for years to come. We must, however, in looking back keep in mind the words of Colton.

"To look back to antiquity is one thing; to go back to it another. If we look back to it, it should be as those who are running a race, only to press forward the faster, and to leave the beaten way still further behind."

Dedication

Because of the many services which you have performed in our behalf, the unselfish hours you have spent helping us choose our careers, prepare for college, and work on our annual, the sympathy you have shown with our problems and the warmth of your friendship, we, the Senior Class of 1963, respectively dedicate our yearbook, THE INDIAN, as a token of our

THANKS.

In Appreciation

o

Through the past year's challenges, have offered us encouragement.
Many times we have found the magic key to unlock the door to dramatic, even seemingly insurmountable obstacles.
For this encouragement, the entire class expresses to you, our parents, our most sincere appreciation.

Jane,

"Well," we have finally made it out of Elementary School. Sure is good isn't it. It really has been great knowing you. We sure have ^{had} lots of fun, haven't we. Good luck always to a sweet and ~~deserving~~ girl.

Lots of Luck Always,
Frances

Jane,

I can't believe we are finally out of Elementary School, but it does seem good! I wish you all the luck in the world, which you most certainly ~~deserve~~ ^{deserve}!

Lots of Luck!

Peg

Jane,

I can't believe the "good ole days of Elementary School" are over. The years we have known you have flown by. We have had lots of fun. Remember the sixth grade? I wish you all the fun and success in the world, for you really are a deserving girl. Keep up your sweet ways.

Lots of luck always,
Bobbe Sue

Jane,
Good luck!
R. Harris

Jane, I've surely enjoyed teaching you this year.
I know of only one thing that I'd change about you if I could - You're just that perfect in every way.

Mrs. Highsmith
